

answers may vary:

- 1) Matt Nelsenador
- 2) nelsenm@crc.losrios.edu
- 3) Last April, I was in a play at American River College.

OR

I have two dogs, and one of the dogs has two different colored eyes, and when the eyes reflect light, those colors are different too.

OR

I am a laundry enthusiast.

OR

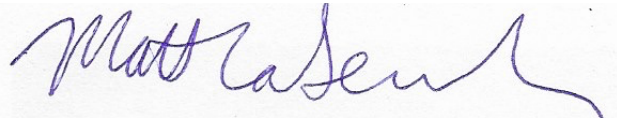

I like to name bridges. I have named 39 bridges, many of which are in Sacramento.

4) I love math, and I love statistics. I've taught Stat 300 approximately 25 times since I started in Los Rios. (I never even took a stats class to get my math major at UCD... how does that even make sense?)

5 and 6) I took lots of Math classes at UCD through 1999.

7) I probably won't pass, since I am the instructor.

8) Matt Nelsenador

9)

10) 1

11) 1

12) 66.1

13) 7.5 hours

14) Yes, white

15) Yes, Democrat

16) Mean Girls, the musical

17) Stat 300 (taught, not taken)

18) 29

19a) teaching 2 classes, for at least 7 weeks

19b) 15-20 hours

20) yeah, that's my work

21) housework (including laundry, yardwork, cleaning, walking the dogs, cooking):

10 hours, exercise 5-6 hours

22) Fridays

23) done

24)

25) What is the coolest thing you have ever done in your life?

How many songs have you written?

What is your least favorite food?

When will grades be available?

Where did you watch the 2017 total solar eclipse?

What is your favorite month and why?

How many states have you been to?

By how many points do you think the 49ers will win the Super Bowl?